

“Women Walking Together” Covenant

Lord, thank You for the relationship You have begun.

I, _____, and I,

enter into this covenant friendship with joy. As evidence of our commitment to this mentoring relationship, we agree to do the following:

- Commit to contacting and meeting together regularly for one year.
- Commit to praying for each other.
- Keep personal information shared within the mentoring relationship private. If a need to consult someone outside the relationship arises, we will discuss it together.
- Strive for honesty and openness in all interactions between mentor and mentee.
